A Letter from the Pastor

Dear All:

Blessed are those who trust in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream.

Jeremiah 17:7-8

One of the things I have been doing since arriving is to read your Narrative Transition Mission Study. In this study, Carson Mouser writes that WPC's history is an interplay of change and transition - often mirroring the change and transitions of the Webster community and the larger world. He says:

“However, adapting to the unfamiliar environment did not mean giving up their trust in God or commitment to each other nor their meaningful practices of faith. It meant reclaiming them and expanding ministries both within the congregation and ministries outward to the local community and global community.”

Notice the three parts: Trust in God; Commitment to each other; Meaningful practices of faith. Carson then goes on to use the words resilience, tenacity, and commitment. Why did these words stick out to me... because you couldn't have this type of resilience, tenacity, and commitment if you weren't "rooted." Webster Presbyterian Church is "rooted" in Christ. You have put your "trust in God." Your faith in God gives you your resilience. Your commitment to be a follower of Jesus Christ "roots" or grounds you. And you show resiliency in your continued living and sharing the love of God which is affirmed by your "welcoming all" statement.

Pictures tell stories like the banner called the "Tree of Life." Ruth Arthur, Meg Marsh, Nancy Carr, Mary Ellen Pacocha, Karen Noske, Jean Maier, Stephanie Lux, and Lindsey Hall all worked on the "tree." They started in Genesis in the Garden - God's creation and with God's created order. In other words, God is King. They included a serpent. The serpent reminds us of our ability to make choices - in this case, one path that chooses not to follow God's instruction - but rather, to create one's own path separate from God. I find it interesting that the serpent is on the edge of the hanging branch as if falling off. The Burning Bush is a reference to Moses. I am reminded of Moses' last speech to the Israelites before they passed over into the Promised Land... which included him stressing to the Israelites that they must believe and be willing to walk in God's way which includes God's statutes and God's commandments. The Crown of Thorns reminds us of Jesus' death, and the butterflies - a sign of the Resurrection. This represents the heart of your faith. You'll also find the Vine and the Branches and the Fruits of the Spirit. These speak to your connection to God through Jesus and of the ongoing work of the Holy Spirit in the church's life.

A Note from Session

In my study Bible, it says that the words “tree planted by water” is imagery used by Jeremiah suggesting the “tree of life” which can be associated with “wisdom.” It goes on to say that for the sages who wrote wisdom literature, wisdom is the ability to perceive the order of God in creation, the intelligence to act in accordance with God’s order, and moral behavior that leads to well-being.¹ Thus, the “Tree of Life” Banner is “wisdom literature.” It perceives the order of God in creation; it encourages us to act in accordance with God’s order—unlike the serpent who is ready to drop out of the picture—and it stresses moral behavior—by being connected to Christ and by growing our faith and in so doing “acting” out the Fruits of the Spirit- love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. This is WPC and I am proud to be asked to walk alongside you during this time-yet another change and transition in our church community. Thank you for the opportunity.

In Christ,

Susan

Cheers to the skiers, sledders, bobsledders, skaters, and snowman builders. February has come and gone and it was indeed a bonus year for people who love the snow. And thanks to the plowers, shovelers, and salt spreaders who kept our roads open for all of us. We made it through another month of “old fashioned winter”, the first in quite a few years.

It was a banner month for all of us at Webster Presbyterian Church. Pastor Susan Frost has joined us as our Stated Supply Pastor and is busy getting to know our church and all our people. We are excited and grateful to recognize the hard work of that committee and especially Todd Fargo and Heather Hewlett who spearheaded this all-important search. And we thank God for His work. Without His backup and His love, this joyful result would not and could not have happened.

Presently, our PNC is also at work searching for a new installed Pastor to answer the call. They have met several times already to work through the preliminary objectives needed to smooth the way. Please continue to pray for them as they trek this difficult and challenging journey of faith and exploration. They are an amazing group and God is with them all the way.

March brings back a potluck dinner and a Talent Show. The protein part of the meal will be provided and we can do all the rest. Sign up in the Narthex to indicate how many will be coming and what you plan to share. The Talent Show will follow; please sign up in the Narthex for this too. It’s a great time to have fun - all acts are welcome whether singing, dancing, instrumentals, comedy, or juggling, if you can do it, we will applaud you.

Our 200-year celebration planning goes on; the committee has amazing things planned. Please mark your calendars for September 21st. Feel free to comment, suggest, offer to help, contribute memorabilia, offer to help, spread the word, offer to help. This is such a special time for our church.

Adult Ed continues to wow us with timely and thought-provoking second-hour programs; Spiritual Nurture has prayerful, caring plans to help make our worship services more wonderful for all of us. Heart and Hand never stops giving. Our Mission Committee is sharing our gifts with our brothers from all over the world. We have so many wonderful, caring, giving people here in this place.

With prayers and blessings, your friends and neighbors from Session also continue with a very new, somewhat stumbling clerk. But... we got this everybody. And please stay warm.

Kathy Barbehenn, Clerk of Session

ALL ARE WELCOME.

Trustees' Corner

The Trustees ask that everyone use extra care when walking in the parking lot and on the sidewalks. With the heavy snow and the rock salt shortage, conditions can deteriorate quickly. We may experience more icy conditions than we have seen in the past. Our snowplow contractor, as well as most others in the county, has been forced to limit salting in order to maintain an adequate supply for the rest of the season. We ask that you take the following measures until this cold and snow subsides:

- Slow down – drive slow, walk slow; baby steps work well.
- Wear appropriate footwear – low heels, good tread, good traction.
- Pay attention to conditions around you; slippery spots form quickly in the frigid temperatures.
- When in doubt, walk like a penguin.

We have been busy fixing areas around the church - small repairs here and there to keep the building going. We have made some minor plumbing and lighting repairs. We continually survey the building for issues and make repairs as needed. We have identified some small roof repairs that need to be completed near the Chapel. Fortunately, these repairs can wait for warmer weather.

Keep an eye out for our spring workday in early May. If you see something that looks like a good project for us to tackle, please see one of the Trustees.

Lastly, we want to remind everyone to use lids on your beverage cups & mugs when entering the Sanctuary to prevent spills. While spills happen, we would like to minimize them to preserve the carpet and keep the Sanctuary a welcoming place for the congregation.

Deacons' Doings

The Deacons hope that the coffee and cocoa have been warming you up on these cold Sunday mornings! Please be sure to put a lid on your beverage if you plan to bring it into the Sanctuary with you.

Easter Flower Sale

The Deacons will soon be taking orders for Easter flowers that will be used to decorate the Sanctuary on Easter morning. A single Lily ($18.00), Tulips ($14.00), Hyacinths ($14.00) and Azaleas ($29.75) will be available. Orders may be placed by signing up in the Narthex on March 30th, April 6th and 13th, or by calling the church office. Payment can be cash or check made out to Presbyterian Women (PWC) with "flowers" on the memo line.

Food Barrel

Webster HOPE is so appreciative of our congregation's donations. It's a challenging season for many in our local community, and your donations of the following items would make a measurable difference: ground coffee, cooking oil, Albacore tuna, sugar, brownie mix, ketchup, mayonnaise, salad dressing, canned corn, jarred spaghetti sauce, laundry detergent, dish soap, shampoo, conditioner, bar soap, deodorant, and toothpaste. Thank you!

Pot Luck Dinner and Talent Show

Join us on March 22nd at 4:30 pm for the WPC Potluck Dinner and Talent Show. Everyone is welcome! Sign up in the Narthex by March 9th with a dish to pass and to reserve your place at dinner. There is an additional sign up sheet for the talent show. Don't be shy, come show us your talent! If you have any questions, see Laura Oliver or Beth Algase or email Laura at loliver421@gmail.com.

Palm Sunday Brunch

The ladies of Rachel Circle invite you to a Palm Sunday Bruch on April 13th following the worship service.

Join us for a time of fellowship and celebration. All food and beverages will be provided. There will be craft activities for the kids. Please sign up in the Narthex if you are able to come.

Women's Circles

Naomi Circle will meet on March 12th at noon for lunch at Flahery's.

King Circle will meet on March 13th at 10:00 am in Room 5 where Heart and Hand fabrics are stored. Our program will be "Quilting with Tina".

Rachel Circle will meet on Monday, March 31st at 6:30 pm for a Hymn Sing and Fellowship.

Youth Sunday School

Youth in grades 6th - 12th can attend Sunday School on the 2nd and 3rd Sundays of the month. (March 9th and 16th)

Join us in the Youth Room following the Children's message during the worship service.

Heart and Hand

In support of the 200th anniversary committee, we are beginning to develop plans for a celebration banner for the church. This will be the third banner that the quilting branch of Heart and Hand has worked on this year. The first one "All Come, Follow Me" was in place on February 16th, it invites "All" to join Jesus and God above. We hope that the second one will be completed for Easter.

For more information about the 200th celebration keep an eye on the committee's interesting Pathway section called "Reflecting on 200 Years"

Reflecting on 200 Years

Sharing Memories

by Gayl Galen

I became part of Webster Presbyterian Church in 1959 when I was baptized at the Main Street church by Rev. Roger Smith and my grandfather, Rev. Tom Jones. My father was the church school superintendent for many years, so you can imagine the many hours we spent there. I guess I am following in his footsteps. I thought it was cool that my parents had a key to the church and I loved hanging out in my dad's office. One of the original tables used in one of the Sunday School classrooms is still being used in our church nursery today.

The social hall and kitchen were in the basement of the church where all of the family pot-luck suppers were held. Those were always a highlight and just about everyone from the congregation attended. Fellowship activities were an important part of our church.

I sang in the children's choir. We wore white paper collars with red bows when we sang in worship. We had to be VERY careful to not rip them while waiting to sing. When we sang, we stood in the choir loft which made us feel very important.

There was a staircase leading up to the old bell tower. It had been destroyed in a fire many years before. No one was allowed to go up those stairs, but with my dad busy in his Sunday School office and my mom probably busy running at least one committee meeting, my sister and I decided to investigate. I remember being very disappointed that there was nothing at the top but a locked door. We made it to the top and back without being seen and considered the adventure disappointing, but still a success because we didn't get caught.

Above all else, what I remember most growing up at WPC was the feeling of having a church family and the friendships we made over the years, friendships I still have today because of my times in youth group, work camps, church picnics, and fellowship activities. 200 years later we are still a church family. Time doesn't change everything.

Mission Update

Recent Extra Donations

As a result of your generous pledges and extra gifts to Mission, we were blessed to be able to make the following donations that are in addition to our budget:

From Special Mission Gifts: $1000 to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance for California wildfires relief, $500 to ROCMaidan for medical supplies for Ukraine, and $500 for twin bed sheets and blankets for an urgent need at Open Door Mission during the extreme cold and snowy weather.

From Discretionary Mission Budget: $500 for Church World Service for California wildfires relief

One Great Hour of Sharing Special Offering

This is a heads-up that we will be collecting for this annual special PCUSA offering from March 23rd until Easter (April 20th). Special envelopes will be in the chair racks during that time. About 1/3 of this offering goes to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, 1/3 to the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and 1/3 to the Self Development of People to combat racism, poverty, oppression, etc.. Watch for more information in the bulletins starting in mid-March and in the April Pathway.

Mission Bulletin Board in Narthex

When you have a chance, please stop at the Mission section of the bulletin board in the Narthex to read some of the very special thank you notes we have received from many of the recipients of our donations.

Blanket Sunday Appeal

The Mission Committee is pleased to report that the Blanket Sunday appeal, which was completed on February 16th, resulted in $1450 being contributed! This is an increase over what was contributed in last year's appeal. These donations will be used to provide blankets and other necessities to needy people all around the world through Church World Services. Thank you to the congregation and praise to our Lord.

Adopt-A-Highway Coordinator

Our twice-per-year Adopt-a-Highway mission activity needs a new coordinator or coordinators. This is an activity WPC has conducted for more than a decade with many of us having been a part of prior clean-ups. The great majority of participants have found this to be an enjoyable and worthwhile endeavor, with neighborhood appreciation readily apparent. It will be unfortunate if this ministry comes to an end due to the lack of a new coordinator. For questions on what this would involve or to volunteer, contact Mark Pipal at pipalmw@yahoo.com or 585-690-7217.

Women's Bible Study

Easter joy is coming, but we need the 6 weeks of Lent to reflect and prepare to fully grasp its gift.

The weeks of Lent for the WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY will be based on N.T. Wright's book Surprised by Hope / Rethinking Heaven, the Resurrection, and the Mission of the Church. The discussion will touch on hope, resurrection, Easter, Jesus, heaven and the new creation, salvation, and paradise. These are "weighty" topics, but Wright's book is deep in Biblical history, theology, and Scripture. We will journey through Lent and beyond. All are welcome to join us on Tuesday mornings in Room 9/10 at

One in Christ

ONE in Christ Purpose:

To support our LGBTQIA+ siblings as we continue to foster an inclusive and compassionate community, rooted in faith, through education and advocacy.

“In December of 2019, I finally came out to the world as a transgender woman!

My name is Jaime Lustig and I use female pronouns (she/her/hers), so please use those to refer to me as well.”

Jaime will be joining us as ONE in Christ’s guest speaker for Adult Ed on March 2, 2025, at 10:45 AM in the Sanctuary, sharing her insight and experience on how we can create a safe space free of judgments, where people can honestly communicate with each other, educate one another, and ask any and all questions. Jaime is a certified school and district leader in NYS, employed by the RCSD as director of External Special Education. She has expertise in educational leadership (K-12 and Special Education), autism spectrum disorders, school strategic planning, social-emotional learning, behavioral supports, and trauma-informed schools. She is also an adept fundraiser, program developer, and former professional musician, as well as a wife and mom.

We live in an ever-diversifying society and in order to be more supportive and aware of different identities, perspectives, and experiences, we must pursue (and provide) opportunities to learn about different identities, perspectives, and experiences—particularly ones that are stigmatized, marginalized, and largely silenced.

Please join us as Jaime shares her thoughts on what “Welcoming All,” “Come as You Are,” and “Love Your Neighbor” should sound like, look like, and feel like in our community. Please submit any questions you have for Jaime to a ONE in Christ Committee member:

Sandi Blakey, Shirley Crane, Lee Ann Daigle, Barb Hach, John Kubinieć, Abbey Mayer, and Alissa Mayer.

Worship and Music

*Sing to him, sing praises to him;
tell of all his wonderful works.*

Psalm 105:2

The Worship and Music committee would like to take this opportunity to welcome Reverend Susan Frost! We look forward to working with Susan to make the worship experience here at WPC a special time for all who come through our doors (or join us virtually!) We are excited for this new beginning and invite you to come worship with us on Sunday mornings.

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on March 5th. Join us for worship and communion in the Sanctuary at 7:00 pm. Several articles in this Pathway highlight ways to make your Lenten season meaningful. Keep an eye on bulletin announcements, Facebook, Instagram, and our website to keep up-to-date on everything that is happening during the weeks leading up to Easter.

The next concert in our Organ Concert Series will be on Sunday afternoon, March 23rd at 3:00. This is Kat’s last year at the Eastman School of Music and the selections Kat will share with us will be those she will be performing at her upcoming senior recital at Christ Church. Come and support Kat as she performs her final recital at WPC. We have been blessed with her musical talents and this organ recital offers a repertoire not heard during worship. The concert is open to all and free of charge. Bring your friends and neighbors!

Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

Psalm 105:3

Learning for a Lifetime

Adult Ed classes begin at 10:45 am and are in Room 9/10 unless otherwise indicated.

March 2 ONE in Christ presents guest speaker, Jaime Lustig 10:45 in the Sanctuary
See the ONE in Christ article on this page for details.

Lenten meetings will center once more with discussions on chapters from Into the Mess by Debi Thomas. The theme will be Passion or Holy Week beginning with the Palm Sunday story of Jesus.

March 9 “My Broken Hosanna” – John 12:12

“Do You Know?” – John 13:3-15

March 16 “A Crucified God” – Matthew 27

March 23 “Father, Forgive Them” – Luke 23: 32-37

March 30 “Today with Me” – Luke 23:39-43

“It Happens in the Dark” – John 20:1-18

Please join the group in Room 9/10 to deepen your Lenten experience and prepare more fully for the glorious Easter message.

Spiritual Nurture

Dear Friends in Christ, the following was shared with SNC by one of our own and we are sharing it with you:

Hopi Indian leader, White Eagle, commented on the situation we are in:

“This moment that mankind is experiencing now can be seen as either a door or a hole. The decision to fall into the hole or go through the door is yours. If you absorb information 24 hours a day, with negative energy, constantly nervous, and pessimistic, you will fall into this hole. But if you take the opportunity to look at yourself, use the time to rethink life and death, to care for yourself and others, you are walking through the portal. Keep your home, keep your body safe. Connect with your spiritual home. When you take care of yourself, you take care of everyone else. Don't underestimate the spiritual dimension of this crisis. Take the perspective of an eagle that sees everything from above with a broader perspective. There is a social issue in this crisis but also a spiritual issue. They both go hand in hand. Without the social dimension, we fall into bigotry. Without the spiritual dimension, we perish in pessimism and meaninglessness. Are you ready to pass this crisis? Pack your toolbox and use all the tools at your disposal. Learn the resistance from the example of the Indian and African people: We are and still are being threatened by extinction. But we never stopped singing, dancing, building bonfires, and having joy. Don't feel guilty for feeling happy in these difficult times. It doesn't help at all to be sad or angry. Resistance is resistance through joy! You have every right to be strong and positive. And there's no other way to do this than by adopting a beautiful, cheerful, and empathetic attitude. This has nothing to do with alienation (ignorance of the world) - it's a resistance strategy. When we enter the door, we are given a new worldview because we have faced our fears and overcome adversity. That's all you can do now:

- Seek solace in the storm
- Keep calm, pray daily
- Make it a habit to meet the Holy everywhere, every day.
- Show resistance through art, joy, trust, and love.”

In this spirit, we invite you to share your stories of salt and light, following the theme we proposed in February (Matthew 5:13-16). Tell about a time when “...a different way of seeing the world leads to a different way of being in the world” (Brian McLaren). Perhaps you were changed through a simple comment that someone made to you, or you experienced something that touched you deeply. Please reach out to any of us on SNC: Bob Blakey, Nancy Duquette, or Barb Hach to submit your story. Thank you!

On Ash Wednesday, March 5th, our floor Labyrinth will again be available to walk with Taize music in the background, before or after our evening worship service.
Please join us.

Book Review

I just finished a newly arrived, lovely book in our library, The Serviceberry: Abundance and Reciprocity in the Natural World by Robin Wall Kimmerer. It is based on the author's experience of harvesting Serviceberries alongside the birds. The natural world is based on interconnectedness and gratitude. Our economy and relationships are based on competition and hoarding, rather than on sharing and protecting Mother Earth from harm. All flourishing is mutual. It is an uplifting theme on our need for community with each other and all life on the Earth and I highly recommend it!

Take time to browse the material in the library. It is a rich resource. Thank you, Jean Maier, for all the time and care you put into maintaining the library.

On these cold winter days, what is better than curling up with a book? The church library has much to offer; we're sure you'll find something you'll like. There is a display of Easter and Lent books and a few new items.

Fiction books:

The Stranger in the Lifeboat* by Mitch Albom A group of people on a lifeboat pull a man out of the water who claims to be The Lord. What would we do if we called for God's help and he appeared?

Counting Miracles* by Nicholas Sparks A multigenerational story about faith, love, and finding where we belong.

New and Selected Poems V.1* by Mary Oliver

Christian books of living, study, and prayer:

Serviceberry: Abundance and Reciprocity in the Natural World* by Robin Wall Kimmerer A book about gratitude, reciprocity, and community, based on the lessons of the natural world and Native Americans

A Million Little Miracles* by Mark Batterson There are miracles around us daily, do we notice them? Batterson says God is bigger than we think, God is closer than we realize and God is better than we imagine.

Church of the Wild: How Nature Invites Us into the Sacred* by Victoria Loorz Feeling unsatisfied with her current church and faith, she looks to our suffering earth and finds her faith and church there.

Every Good Endeavor* by Timothy Keller The Christian view of work - we work to serve others, not ourselves - can provide the foundation of a thriving professional and balanced personal life.

The Lives We Actually Have; 100 Blessings for Imperfect Days* by Kate Bowler and Jessica Richie Warm and witty blessings about good days, bad days, and ordinary days.

Shine - Church School News

For the month of March, we will be talking about our families. No two families are alike. The Bible is filled with stories of real people and certainly reflects that truth. Our Bible lessons this month will teach children that God wants family members to care for each other. Helping the kids to remember that all families are different, all families disagree and that all families stick together and love one another through good times and tough times. God offers unconditional love to each and every one of us.
